Our ethos at Browns is always to source the very best wines at the keenest of prices whilst reflecting the very epitome of style of both contemporary trends and the classics alike. It goes without saying we are immensely proud of the selection of our wines and thus feel confident they will live up to expectations.

Working in conjunction with our local Wine Merchant, Browns Hotel has been very fortunate to welcome many top and most influential Wine Makers who have played a tangible role in shaping our current list. Such regular and first hand exposure to the intriguing world of wine constantly reinforces our passion; this in turn is hopefully self-evident when you glance through our current portfolio.

Browns Hotel is delighted to host the 'Tavistock Wine Club' run by Tavistock's independent Wine Merchant, Charles Steevenson Wines.

WHITE WINES

Browns Hotel has, over the years, built up an enviable reputation for exceptional food. To compliment this our wines must also excel. Emphasis in particular for the white wines is to display perfect varietal expression, without being over concentrated and hence rendering them difficult to match with many dishes. Elegance, expression, balance and finish.
